Hello! I am enclosing two research reports listing the sources I checked for your ancestors. Balding and Belt are both familiar names in this area. I found references to Anson Balding in the Vigo County histories but not in the local marriage or cemetery records. There is a Balding Cemetery in Otter Creek Township, but the stones were almost gone when it was copied in 1980. Names on the four stones were Isaac, J. S., John, and Joseph. When I checked the indexes to the 1850-80 Indiana censuses, I found an Anson Balding in Jefferson County but not in Vigo.

I found a great deal of material on the Belt family. I did find Jared Belt's two marriages in Vigo County. We have the actual marriage records on microfilm, but the records from that time period did not give much information. We don't have divorce records in the library. Those are filed in the clerk's office and are rather difficult to find as they were mixed in with all the other civil court records. However, I suspect that Mary (Saxton) Belt died rather than getting divorced. I couldn't find Jared or Mary listed in any of our Vigo County cemetery books. Most of the information for those books was copied from the stones, and it is possible that Jared did not have a stone or that the stone did not survive. It is also possible that Jared was buried in nearby Parke County. His son, George Crouch Belt, moved there as an adult.

I did find a guardianship record for the heirs of Jared Belt in Complete Probate Order Book, 1851-1854, pages 57 through 61. The guardian, C. C. Belt, was recommending that the real estate be sold to benefit the heirs.

I did find the marriage of Carlton C. Belt and "Lizzie" Balding and also found their obituaries in the Terre Haute Tribune. If you would like copies of the obituaries, the charge is $1.00 per obituary. No doubt you could obtain copies of their death certificates from the Vigo County Health Dept., 171 Oak St., Terre Haute IN 47807. Death certificates are $4.00 each, and you must send copies of two pieces of identification, one with a photo.

I did not have too much luck with Nellie Belt. I found a marriage between Nellie Belt and John F. Petri on 21 February 1894, Book 13, page 80, and Book 4M, page 31. Nellie was age 23 and a daughter of Carlton and Eliza Belt. I also found a marriage between Elva Belt and Charles T. Smith on 14 January 1886, Book 10, page 165, and Book 1M, page 293. Elva was age 19 and a daughter of Carlton C. and Elizabeth "Baldwin" Belt. Oddly enough, Carlton C. Belt was listed twice on the 1880 census, once in Terre Haute and once in Harrison Township. The Harrison Township listing shows Carlton with a fourteen-year-old daughter Elda, a nine-year-old daughter Nellie, and five-year-old twins Maggie and Mary. The Terre Haute listing shows him with a fourteen year old Ella, a nine year old son Willie, and five year old twins Maggie and Mary.

We also have a Belt family genealogy by Ruby (Belt) Cronk. She was born in Parke County and was a descendant of Jared's son George Crouch Belt. Ruby was a distant cousin of mine, but we were related through the Adams family, not the Belts. The Belt genealogy consists of photocopied family group sheets and some source documents. I know that Ruby did document her research, but she didn't always cite her sources.

If you would like copies of any of the items on the research report, our charge is 15 cents per page (except for obituaries), plus postage. Obituaries are $1.00 each.

Our Belt family file contains two typed papers. One is a six page paper titled "The Belts" with no author given. The only Thomas Belt mentioned in this paper was a Thomas Talbot Belt, born 1848 and died 1903, married to Miss Ella Inman, and a "gallant Confederate soldier." The other paper is thirteen pages and untitled. It begins with Hester Beall, born 1687, who married Col. Joseph Belt, son of John Belt and Elizabeth Tidings and grandson of the Jamestown settler Humphrey Belt. Col. Joseph's son Jeremiah had a son Thomas born in 1756 but no further information is given on him.

We also have a book The Belt Line, 1615-1981 by Ruby Belt Cronk. This is a large notebook of family group sheets and photocopies of various documents and is not indexed. Luckily, there is a copy of "Thomas Belt of Maryland and Iredell County, North Carolina" in the section on Benjamin Belt. It is actually 21 pages, and we could copy it for 15¢ per page, plus postage. It is not a very good copy so I'm not sure how it will turn out.

According to Complement to Genealogies in the Library of Congress, the Allen County Public Library, 900 Webster St., P.O. Box 2270, Fort Wayne IN 46802, also has a copy of the Thomas Belt paper.

It appears that Thomas Belt was a son of Benjamin Belt II, a grandson of Benjamin I, and a great grandson of John Belt and Elizabeth Tidings.

Dear Librarian,

I was advised that you have an eleven page paper on "Thomas Belt of Maryland + Iredell Co, NC, by Mary Elinor Lazenby. I would very much appreciate having copies made from this because I feel Thomas Belt was my 5th G. Grandfather. I would be very happy to pay for copies.

Thank you so much for your time.

BELTS.

The name, Bēlt, was originally Dei Balthe' (The Fold). a nickname applied to the Gothie Kings. Alaric, chosen by the Goths as their king, in 395, A. D., belonged to the noble family of the Baltha,--Balthe'.—(See Encyclopedia Brittanica).

Quoting from a letter written by Mr. William Belt (Dei Balthi) M. A. E. S. A., of Bossall Hall, Yorkshire, England, to Rev. William Belt, of Toronto, Canada,—

The main stock comes down direct from the Balthi, the Gothic Kings of Lombardy, through their descendents, the Princes of Orange, on the Rhine. The last Prince of Orange of the line of Athemar was, from whom are descended the Belts of Scotland, Ireland, Canada, United States and Australia. The present representative of the family in England is William Belt, Esq., of Bossall Hall, Yorkshire, England.

Bertrand Des Beaux,

The arms of the Lombardy-Balthi are still to be seen in the ruined fortress, "Des Beaux", (Balthi), near Arles, France.

"Coat of Arms of the Belts of Bossall Hall".

"Gules, on the chevron argent, between three bezants or, a cross patie fitchie between two mullets, voided, - azure.

Crest: on a mount vert, a cross patee fitchie in pale gules; that is a red cross on a green mountain,---the early Belts were crusaders. The sharpened cross was driven into the hill-top, or mountain-top, and the Crusaders worshipped around it."

From the above it will be seen that the Belts of the United States are of royal descent, through the English stock, derived from the ancient Gothic Kings, and the Princes of Orange.

The following was obtained from a private record of one of the Maryland Belts:-

"The Belts from England were among the earliest settlers in Maryland. Humphrey Belt came over from Gravescoond, England, in "America" June 23rd, 1635.

William Belt was with Col. Wm. Claiborne on Kent Island, in 1647. Humphrey, John, Anne and Sarah Belt were emigrants in 1663. From one of these descended Col. Joseph Belt, who died in 1761, leaving large estates in what was then, Prince George's and Frederick Counties, including---"Chevy Chase", (Chevy Chase was a part of what is now Washington City, Chelsea, "Good Luck", "Friendship", Seneca Hall, etc. His wife was Esther Beale, a daughter of Col. Binian (Beall) Beale, one of the most prominent emigrants from Scotland, and a brave defender of the Colony against the Indians. (Hester Beall)

Jeremiah Belt, a son of Col. Joseph and Esther (Beale) Belt, married Mary Sprigg, daughter of Dr. John Sprigg; their son,

Col. Richard Belt, was in the war of the Revolution, and was killed at the battle of White Plains, in 1776,--another son,

Major John Sprigg Belt, served during the entire Revolutionary War. Gov. Pratt of Maryland, was the son of Rachel Belt and Wilkes Pratt. Governor Sprigg and Bowie were also related to the Belts. Alfred Belt, of London County, Virginia, was a cousin of Gov. Pratt's mother, and a son of Carlton Belt, of Montgomery County, Maryland."

The line of Belts is traced as follows:-

Humphrey Belt came over from Gravescond, England, in the "America", June 23rd, 1635, and settled in Maryland. Humphrey had a son,

John Belt,--who had a son,

John Belt,-- who had a son,

Higginston Belt,--who had a son.

Carelton Belt

Higginson Belt, and his wife Sarah (. . . . . .) Belt, had five children:-

1. John Belt,--died 1814.
2. Carlton Belt, I---died 1802.
3. Higginson Belt,--died 1795.
4. Rebecca Belt.
5. Greenbury Belt.

2. Carlton Belt I, second son of Higginson Belt, lived in Montgomery County, Maryland. He married twice; his first wife was Mary Watson, Children:-

1. Watson Belt, Born March 6th, 1769.
2. Higginson Belt, born November 15th, 1770.
3. Lucy Belt, born May 12th, 1774.
4. Mary Belt, born June 19th, 1776.
5. Carlton Belt II, born July 18th, 1772. (We have this--born March 16, 1778, died Oct. 17, 1816. Reference Jackson Bible and Tombstone.)
6. Washington Belt, born December 12th, 1779.
7. Lee Belt, born June 11th, 1781.

Carlton I Belt's second wife was Anne Campbell, a daughter of Col. Eneas (or Enes) Campbell, who served in the Revolutionary War, in the "Flying camp of the First Maryland Battalion."

Carlton Belt served as his Aide-de-Camp.

Carlton Belt and Anne Campbell were married December 26, 1784; their children were:-

1 & 2. Twins,--Eneas and Esther, born April 24th, 1786.

3. Alfred Belt. born February 14th, 1788.

4. Tilghman Belt, born September 3rd, 1789.

5. Anne Belt, born May 26th, 1791.

6. Lloyd Belt, born May 25th, 1795.

(Lloyd Belt came to Louisville, Georgia, 1818. In 1820 married Julia Montgomery, youngest child of Mr. John Berrien, of Revolutionary fame, and Wilhemina Moore.)

7. Anne Campbell Belt, born November 17th, 1797.

8. Elizabeth Belt, born December 18th, 1799.

9. Hennie Annie Campbell Belt, born 1802, died at the age of sixteen.

6. Dr. Lloyd Belt, the sixth child of Carlton and Anne (Campbell) Belt, came from Montgomery County, Maryland, in 1818, and settled in Louisville, Jefferson County, Georgia, where he passed the remainder of his life following the practice of medicine. He married Julie Berrien, of Jefferson County, Georgia; their son,—

Dr. Lloyd Carlton Belt was born at Oakland Plantation, near Louisville, Jefferson County, Georgia. He married Elizabeth Talbot Jones, 26th May, 1846. He was one of the representative physicians and surgeons of Bullock County till a few years before the war, when he gave up his practice and attended solely to his large plantation interests. He organized and equipped a company at the outbreak of the war, and was made captain of the same.

That company was the color company of the 9th, Georgia Volunteer infantry. He was offered the office of Colonel of his regiment, but he refused the distinction, preferring to remain in command of his own company. He preceeded with his command to Virginia and in an engagement at Dam #1 on the Potomac River, he was mortally wounded, and was taken to the city of Richmond, where he died May 14, 1862.

Dr. Lloyd Carlton Belt and Elizabeth Talbot (Jones) Belt had four Children:-

1. Thomas Talbot Belt, born June 4th, 1848; died 23rd Dec. 1903; married Miss Ella Inman; was a gallant Confederate soldier. Left one son, Charles Inman Belt, born 21st of June, 1874, at Beltwood Plantation.

2. Williamine Berrien Belt, born 10th July, 1851; she died 21st January, 1896.

3. Lloyd Jones Belt, born March 15th, 1856.

4. Charles Belt, born 22nd February, 1858; died 3rd of Oct. 1861.

Dr. Lloyd Belt, the only surviving child, lives in Millen, Jenkins County, Georgia, is a physician and has a large practice, until his health failed and is now looking after his planting interests and a limited amount of practice.

When Georgia called for troops the last time, Thomas Talbot Belt, aged fourteen years, ran away from school, joined the Confederate Army, fought in the battle of Atlanta. Was promoted to Adjutant of Ammunition Department. When leaving Atlanta he saw two wagons loaded with ammunition, the teamsters both gone, he got down off his horse, and made Paul, his body servant do the same, he mounted the front wagon and made Paul take the other and rode from Atlanta (under Sherman's fire) to Lovejoy Station. He was made First Lieutenant on General S. W. Carswell's Staff.

Dr. Lloyd Carlton Belt was the youngest child of Dr. Lloyd Belt and Julia Montgomery Berrien, was born at Oakland, the plantation of the Berrien's. He married on the 26th of May, 1846, Elizabeth Talbot Jones, the only child of Col. William Jones, of Hanover Virginia, and Elizabeth Conway Talbot.
